

Recommendation letter

Interlang has supported Armatec with technical translations over the last years into several languages.

They are always ready and deliver fast price indications that is important in early stages in projects. The same with complete delivery of the translation it is always on time.

Jonas Wessberg

Project Manager